

Plaster boarding your concrete garage

The rib design of the internal walls of the spar/pebbledash L&M Concrete garages readily facilitates the addition of a plasterboard lining; you may even consider insulated plasterboard. The plasterboard is attached using an adhesive designed to bond concrete and wood together; this can be purchased from many DIY stores or timber merchants.

Or another alternative as this picture shows the panels have been battened.